AT SONNY NEWMAN'S

Come Learn with Champion Teachers and Dance with Seattle's Top DJs!

NO PARTNER REQUIRED • ALL AGES • PLENTY OF PARKING

Event Details

WHERE: Sonny Newman's Dance Hall 201 N. 85th St
(Greenwood Area) Plenty of close, free parking!

WEAR: Shoes: wear comfortable, non-marking shoes. It's preferable to wear shoes with a slicker sole, but try not to wear high heels, ladies! Attire: Though swing dance is athletic, steer clear of gym clothing. Find something nice that you feel comfortable moving around in.

WHO: Everyone is welcome and you do not need a partner for class. You have the choice to dance with everybody, or only with the person you came with if you choose.

HOW MUCH: Class/Dance: $15 non-members • $10 SCC members. Dance: $5 non-members • $3 SCC members.

I'M NEW...WHAT SHOULD I TAKE?: We suggest starting with the beginner class. After you've had basic experience you can then move to Intermediate Lindy!

Class Levels

BEGINNER CLASSES: Mondays at 8:15pm

Classes are designed to be modular, so if you have to miss a class, or want to start in the middle of a month, you'll still learn plenty and you won't be lost.

INTERMEDIATE CLASSES: Mondays at 7pm

A new topic each week means you can come only when the topic interests you, including specialty areas of swing dancing. Come for our Intermediate lesson at 7PM, then stay to help the beginners for free at 8:15, or take a break before the dance at 9:30.

Teacher Bios

DAN NEWSOME is a nationally recognized dancer from Denver. He has taught, competed, DJed and choreographed for over a decade, winning him numerous national titles. His passion comes from a rich understanding of jazz history. In class Dan combines technique, creativity and musicality with a cultivated sense of community.

GABY COOK brings a wide background of professional training in dance, music and theater to her lindy hop. She teaches a core-centered approach to dance and balances the "zen" of following with historically-informed expression.
